BRIDE SLAIN IN HER HOME BY STRANGER TO HUSBAND; SLAYER COMMITS SUICIDE

Mrs. Cornelius Killed in Brooklyn by Man Identified as George McAgnon.

HUSBAND FINDS BODIES.

Had Run for Help When Intruder Climbed Through a Window.

A man climbed into the ground floor bedroom of Carman Cornelius at No. 90 Hopkinson Street at a little after 1 o'clock this morning. Cornelius was wakened by the screams of his young and beautiful wife, Barbara. While he was upstairs seeking help she was slain. Mrs. Cornelius and a man whom Cornelius could not recognize were found shot to death in the room.

One puzzling mystery followed another as the police and coroner tried to get light in the matter. Late this afternoon the dead man was identified by William J. Morris, assistant freight manager in the Pennsylvania Railroad yards in Jersey City, as George McAgnon, an assistant yardmaster of the railroad.

McAgnon's friends were shocked when they learned of the shooting. They describe him as a devoted father to his six children, who were left motherless over a year ago. He was not known to have any bad habits or to carry a revolver. Since his wife's death his sister has been his housekeeper, according to Morris.

The identification followed the discovery of a label in the man's well-cut coat of a Jersey City retail clothing store. McAgnon's name was no more recognized by Cornelius and the dead woman's relatives in Brooklyn than the man's features had been. But postcards found in the Cornelius home were taken by Acting Captain Duane and Lieut. Carey of the Homicide Bureau as indications that the dead man, who had a signet ring and a scarf pin bearing the initial "G.," had known Mrs. Cornelius more or less intimately.

ONE SUBMARINE SUNK BY ANOTHER; FIRST EVER KNOWN

Rome Reports Torpedoing of Italian Undersea Boat by an Austrian Raider.

ROME, June 17.—An Austrian submarine has torpedoed the Italian submarine Medusa, the Ministry of Marine announced this afternoon. This is the first time in naval history in which one submarine has attacked another. The first bulletin from Rome did not say whether the Medusa was sunk, but it is possible she went to the bottom, if struck by a torpedo.

LONDON, June 17.—The British steamer Trafalgar was sunk by a German submarine in St. George's Channel, thirty miles off the Small Islands, yesterday. Her crew was landed at Milford Haven this morning.

BERNSTORFF GOES TO DENY REPORT OF GERHARD HOAX

Ambassador, Branding Story False, Makes Appointment With Secretary Lansing.

EMISSARY IS IN BERLIN.

Agent Sees von Jagow and Explains Situation in United States Over Lusitania.

BERLIN, via London, June 17.—Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, who sailed from New York June 4 on a mission to the German Government from Count von Bernstorff, reached Berlin last night. This morning he had a protracted conference with Foreign Minister von Jagow and Minister Rolf of the Colonial Office.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Acting Secretary of State Lansing this afternoon announced receipt of a telegram from the German Ambassador, Count von Bernstorff, saying the latter would confer with the acting secretary to-morrow morning relative to the Meyer-Gerhard matter.

The State Department also issued the following: "The Department of State has received a telegram from the German Ambassador (Dr. Haimhausen), dated June 16, calling attention to articles appearing in yesterday's papers in regard to an alleged breach of confidence on the part of the Ambassador in sending a secret German gun-boat to Berlin in place of Dr. Meyer-Gerhard, the Red Cross delegate. In regard to these articles, the Ambassador states as follows:

"It is unnecessary for me to assure you that the story contained in these articles is untrue from beginning to end. It contains a personal attack on the Ambassador and his delegate, Dr. Meyer-Gerhard, and is likely at the same time to nullify sincere and earnest efforts of the Ambassador to bring about an understanding between the United States and Germany in the Lusitania question."
